SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

OUR TERMS

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

" two months,	2 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

To the Convention.

Members of the Convention who desire the Sentinel left on their desks after to-day, will please notify us at the office.

Governor's Message.

The message of Gov. Worth to the Convention will be found in the proceedings. It is a short, sensible document, and to the point.

The State Convention.

The proceedings of this body will be found in another column. There is a manifest disposition, on the part of the majority in the Convention, to remain in session a while, though we have not seen the first man who seems to have any fixed idea of what is necessary to be done.

A discussion of the principles involved in Mr. Clark's preamble might have led to settled and fixed notions, not only as to the powers of the body, but as to the fitness, propriety and necessity of what should be done. This was what the friends of Mr. Clark's resolution desired, and not to stave off any action which might be necessary, coming within the design and purpose of President Johnson in calling it. But, the body was not ready to entertain a proposition to adjourn.

Mr. Phillips' resolution, which lies over under the rule, has a specific object, and one which ought to commend itself to the thoughtful consideration of all. His remarks very clearly defined his object, and yet Mr. Settle, who has been so taken aback by Mr. Clark's resolutions, being on the alert against all propositions to adjourn at an early day, could see nothing in it but a horse of the same color under another name.

The Convention, we presume, in order to avail itself of the superior services of Mr. James Page as door-keeper, and in order to provide against the lassitude and fatigues to be encountered by the former door keepers during a long session, passed a resolution appointing Mr. Page second assistant door keeper,—thus providing itself, in advance, with three door keepers!

The Programme.

We have been informed that the Ex-Provisional Governor has arranged, or counsels the Convention to adopt, a programme, which will occupy the Convention at least six weeks! The people are so well able to bear taxation, and the members of the Convention have so little to do at home during the crop season, that his ex Excellency desires to employ its services in propping up his ruined political fortunes, and making some provision by which his wind-broken and spavined nags may get a chance at government fodder.

We learn that he proposes to institute a commission of his wan and lank followers, to proceed to Washington to ascertain, not from the President, but from the Reconstruction committee or the Congress, what their Graces desire the Convention of North Carolina to do, in order to appease their wrath and obtain their favor. We presume the Convention will take its own course and not follow the counsel of the Ex-Governor, who has proven himself to be as poor a statesman, as he has shown himself to be a witless prophet. In his dispatch to the President of Oct. 20, 1865, he says:

"The Worth faction is working hard, but will be defeated by a very large majority."

Mr. Seward's Speech.

We regret that our space will not allow us to publish Mr. S.'s speech at Auburn, N. Y., entire. It is only significant, because of the reiteration of the same sentiments which he has held from the first, in support of President Johnson's course, and President Lincoln's policy, substantially. The following sentiment, however, at the close of the speech, deserves to be engraved upon the rocks:

"But President, Congress, statesmen and parties are of no account, in my estimation, when weighing against the national life. The national life lately hung on the issue of victory won in war. It now hangs on the issue of reconciliation in peace."

Such seem, also, to be the sentiments of the President. "I am nothing, Congress is nothing, statesmen and parties are nothing, in comparison to the great stake,—the Union,—the life of the nation." If a similar sentiment ruled the country, how speedily would all the difficulties of the nation vanish!

The life of the nation, the preservation and perpetuity of the Union, and the peace, the harmony, and the prosperity of the entire people, should be the end and aim, and the sole end and aim, of all parties and individuals.—This appears to be the guiding star of President Johnson. All other matters with him are secondary.

And why should it not be so with all? The interests of the nation, the maintenance of the true spirit of our institutions and the future glorious destiny of the Republic, require the adoption of this policy. Yet the ultra Radical leaders heed not the voice of reason, of humanity or justice. The spoils—the spoils—the holding on to the reins of government, at the jeopardy of the peace of the nation and the utter ruin of the South, control and intensify all their purposes and aims.

Freedmen's Bureau.

We learn, from the Old North State, of Salisbury, that Col. Cilley, who has as acceptably as possible, consistent with the nature of his position, discharged the duties of the Bureau in several Counties of Western North Carolina, and to whose honesty and efficiency Gens. Steedman and Fullerton bore such high testimony, will, under Gen. Ruger, superintend its affairs generally throughout the State.

We are glad to chronicle this fact. If we are to have the Bureau, it is gratifying to know that its operations will be conducted under the auspices of a gentleman who has exhibited the tact, judgment and forbearance ascribed to Col. Cilley.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

FRIDAY, May 25th., 1866.

The Convention met at 10 A. M.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Willey presented a petition from one Thos. D. Fleury, of Chowan county, praying to be relieved from pedlar's tax for the year 1865. Read and referred to the committee on Finance.

Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution to raise a committee of five to examine the Stay Law passed by the General Assembly, with a view to its amendment. Lies over one day under rule.

Mr. Grissom, a resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to furnish 120 copies of the acts of the General Assembly for the years of 1864-'5, and the same number of the acts of the late Legislature, for the use of the members of the Convention. The rules were suspended and this resolution passed its several readings.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, introduced "an ordinance to grant a general amnesty and pardon to all persons guilty of violating the criminal laws of the State of North Carolina, except those guilty of capital felonies."

Mr. Phillips, an ordinance for calling a Convention in 1871.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, an ordinance to provide for the execution of decrees of the Supreme Court made at Morganton.

This ordinance passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, an ordinance concerning the qualifications of voters for municipal officers in the Cities and Incorporated towns of North Carolina. On motion of Mr. Moore, the rules were suspended and the ordinance passed its several readings.

Mr. Furches, an ordinance to amend section 6th. of the Constitution of North Carolina, with regard to the qualification of members of the House of Commons.

Mr. Furches, an ordinance to amend article 1st., section 3rd., clause 1st. of the amended Constitution of North Carolina, with regard to qualification of Senators.

On motion of Mr. Furches, these ordinances were referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, a resolution concerning public appropriations for the Chatham Railroad Company.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, the name of Gen. Saml. F. Patterson, of Caldwell county, was substituted for that of R. L. Patterson (resigned) on the Committee on the War Debt.

Mr. Buxton, "an ordinance in relation to imprisonment for debt," as follows:

"Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained by the authority of the same, That no person shall ever be imprisoned for debt."

Mr. Furches: An ordinance to amend section 3rd. clause 3rd. amended constitution, with regard to free persons of color. (With the proposed amendment, the clause would read thus: "No free negro, free mulatto, or free person of mixed blood, descending from negro ancestors, to the fourth generation inclusive, (though an ancestor of each generation may have been a white person) shall either vote for or be members of the Senate or House of Commons." Referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

The Convention proceeded to consider the unfinished business of its first session:

A preamble and resolutions in relation to legislation upon private debts contracted during the war; an ordinance to abolish slavery in North Carolina; and an ordinance to protect freedmen from the evils of intemperance, were severally read and laid on the table.

The following message was received from His Excellency Gov. Worth:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF N. C., RALEIGH, May 25, 1866.

Gentlemen of the Convention:—Since your adjournment last October, nothing has come to my knowledge, touching our position in reference to the Federal Government, which is not a matter of public history. At your previous session, you made the amendments to the constitution and passed the ordinances believed to be necessary to complete reconciliation with the United States, and our restoration to national fraternity. Although our people, with remarkable unanimity, yielded their assent to your action, and were ready, without any exception within my knowledge, to acknowledge their allegiance to the United States and to obey the laws and constitution thereof, we have been grievously disappointed by the rejection of our members from the Congress of the Nation.—This rejection has not been placed on the ground of any irregularity in their election or qualification. The Congress recognises the existence of the State Government to the extent of incorporating into the constitution of the United States our amendments made thereto; they continue to govern and to tax us, without allowing us any participation in making the laws or imposing the national taxes. The Congress has been sitting some five months, without prescribing any terms on which it is proposed to recognise our admission. We have elected men whom we believe to be as loyal as any men in the United States; every one of whom labored to preserve the Union till hostilities had actually commenced, and every one of whom has renewed or is ready to renew his oath of fidelity to the government of the United States.

Whether any one of them could conscientiously swear that he never aided or sympathized with the rebellion, I do not know. If no member can be received from the States lately in rebellion, without taking the Congressional test oath, it will amount to our practical disfranchisement.

It was presumed, when you adjourned in October last, that, by this time, the Union would have been fully restored, or that Congress would have defined its policy of restoration. Neither event has occurred. Neither the President nor Congress have made known any further requirements.

I have no information which warrants me in making any suggestions to you as to any further action which you may properly take, tending to produce the desired harmony.

Let us so act as to retain our self respect—and to give to our late enemies no just grounds for continued ill will against us. National prosperity cannot be restored until real reconciliation and concord shall be established. If bitterness is to be continued, let all of us strive to co-operate with the President in his patriotic plans, and refrain from giving any just excuse for the continuance of such feeling, and hope that the day is not distant when the Northern people shall be satisfied that their distrust of us is ill founded, and the religion we profess, as well as public policy, demand mutual forgiveness and reconciliation.

I herewith inclose a communication from the Public Treasurer, suggesting certain amendments to the Revenue act of the last General Assembly. I commend his recommendations to your favorable consideration.

In consequence of the order of the President of the United States, relieving the Provisional Governor, I entered on the discharge of my duties of civil Governor, in conformity with your ordinance, on the 28th. December last. I had to encounter some irregularities growing out of the transition. But, with the universal desire of the people to restore order, no serious difficulties have presented themselves in putting into action the machinery of civil government in the State.

In my official correspondence and intercourse with the Executive officers of the United States, and with Brevet Maj. Gen. Ruger, the military commandant of the State, all have exhibited a uniform disposition to avoid unnecessary jarrings in the discharge of our respective duties, and a readiness to co-operate with me in every thing tending to restore cordial reconciliation between the lately belligerent sections of our country.

I learn from Gen. Ruger, to whom the President of the United States has lately assigned the chief supervision of the Freedman's Bureau in this State, that he would gladly transfer to the civil courts of the State full jurisdiction in all matters relating to freedmen, but that he feels embarrassed in doing so, consistent with his instructions, on account of certain provisions and conflicting constructions of the act of the General Assembly, passed at the late session of the General Assembly, entitled "an act concerning negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood."

His difficulties are understood to grow out of the 9th. and 11th. sections of the bill. As it is very desirable that the civil courts shall mete out uniform justice to all, white and black, according to law, and that all cause of dissatisfaction, as to the conflict of jurisdiction, should be avoided, I recommend the subject to your consideration.

My relations to your body, as I conceive, do not warrant me submitting any recommendation whatever in reference to the scope of your action. Hence, I had not intended, until your call of yesterday, to submit any message whatever. Having the fullest confidence in your wisdom, I would not obtrude my views or wishes upon you.

May God guide your counsels to results beneficial to our unhappy country!

JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, the message and accompanying documents were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Foy (by leave) introduced "an ordinance for the relief of the people of North Carolina, who have sustained losses by the war."

Mr. Moore, of Wake, an ordinance repealing the provisoes of section 9, of an act of the General Assembly, entitled "an act concerning negroes and persons of color, or of mixed blood," and for other purposes.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, an ordinance repealing section eleven of an act entitled "an act concerning negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood."

On motion of Mr. Clark, the Convention took up his resolution to adjourn sine die, introduced on yesterday.

Mr. Grissom moved to lay the resolution on the table.

On this question the yeas and nays were ordered, on motion of Mr. Clark.

The resolution was laid on the table as follows:

YEAS.—Alexander, Allen, Baines, Beam, Bell, Bingham, Bradley, Brickell, Bryan, Buxton, Bynum, Caldwell, of Burke, Dickey, Eaton, Ellis, Faulkner, Furches, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Godwin, Grisom, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Haynes, Henry, Hodge, Jackson, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Joyce, Joyner, King, Lash, Logan, Love, of Chatham, Love, of Jackson, Lyon, McCauley, McCorkle, McDonald, of Moore, McGehee, McIvor, Nat. The Convention resumed the calendar of the 1st. session.

An ordinance to provide for Homesteads, on its second reading, was referred, on motion of Mr. Faulkner, to a select committee of five.

The President constituted this committee as follows, viz: Messrs. Faulkner, Dockery, Grissom, Winburne and Foy.

Mr. Phillips (by leave) introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the President, with instructions to report, as soon as practicable, an ordinance calling a Convention of the people of North Carolina in the year 1871, for the purpose of amending the Constitution of the State, and in connection therewith a resolution for the adjournment of the present Convention.

Mr. Phillips moved a suspension of the rules and urged the immediate passage of the resolution.

Mr. Settle opposed the resolution.

The motion to suspend the rules was withdrawn after discussion.

The following resolutions were introduced by leave:

By Mr. Moore, of Wake, a resolution in favor of W. H. Harrison.

By Mr. Thompson, a resolution to appoint a second assistant door-keeper.

By Mr. Manly, a resolution to abrogate the order requiring all ordinances and resolutions introduced in the Convention to be printed.—This resolution was adopted, under a suspension of the rules.

By Mr. Odom, a resolution in relation to a recess and final adjournment of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock, to-morrow.

SATURDAY, May 19, 1866.

B. James Best, Snow Hill, N. C.—Farmer; was clerk of commandant; my duty was to copy all official communications, to file a copy and send one to Richmond.

Maj. Gee protested to Gen. Gardner against the coming of the prisoners—that the place was not suitable. This was in conversation. Maj. Gee wrote to Gen. Gardner to the same effect.

He wrote to the Secretary of War that the prisoners needed clothing and urged that it should be given them. He wrote several times to Gen. Gardner, and particularized it, stating the scarcity of everything required to make those men comfortable—wood, water, shelter, &c.—He never received any answer but a pouring in of prisoners and a reply from Gardner: "The commands of the Secretary of War are imperative." Maj. Gee complained of Goodman and Morfit. That Morfit would not obey his orders and bothered him; pretty much the same about Goodman. He made these complaints in letters about three times. He made out a requisition for 200,000 feet of lumber, immediately after the prisoners came. He went to see about it and wrote about it. It was on Goodman.

He urged Morfit to put up tents as fast as he could get poles for them.

Maj. Gee had 2 or 3 days notice of the coming of the prisoners, by telegram.

He had not a sufficiency of guard. The Commandant of the forces saw the men were going on guard too often and cut down the requisitions.

I have known Major Gee to send Martin. I heard Martin report to him.

The prisoners got notice of prison regulations though Lyerly, the men who counted them, and though the officer of the day. Men escaped almost nightly. Major Gee said to let them take in provisions, but to take whiskey away from them.

I saw a pretty large basket sent down by Capt. Blackmore. I saw it go into the gate of the prison.

A committee of Free-Masons were appointed who extended aid to Masons who were prisoners. Maj. Gee always treated visitors politely, never knew any one refused.

The falling of the chimney made a noise and the prisoners rushed up in a tremendous mass. Maj. Gee went up the steps near the little bakery and when he was within 20 steps the sentinel was ordering the prisoners to disperse. Maj. Gee hallooed to him not to fire, but he did fire. Maj. Gee saw him taking aim. The noise prevented the sentinel from hearing him.

There was a detail sent in immediately to get out any who might be covered up by the ruins of the chimney.

Prisoners who escaped and were brought back were about 150. Never knew Maj. Gee to punish a prisoner.

I remember one who said: "Major, I have come back to see you again." Maj. Gee ordered him to be taken to the cook-house and fed.

He allowed prisoners to go out and work at their trades.

There were a good many sick among the prisoners when they came.

I have seen prisoners take in provisions almost every evening. Maj. Gee saw them.

There were some pies taken by a detective, who said the prisoners had some whiskey. I carried them back into the prison and set them down.

There was straw over the enclosure twice.

Major Gee took several sticks of wood. Morfit wrote to the Quartermaster General, and an endorsement was put on it reflecting on Major Gee, who endorsed it. It was sent to Gardner and returned to Major Morfit. I have heard Major Gee say he supposed he was justified.

He claimed to have taken the wood as a matter of necessity and not of right.

Major Gee said that Morfit had excluded him from his notice on the workshops.

Morfit stated to Major Gee that he had received a communication of the arrangements between the two governments, and Major Gee told him to make out a requisition for clothing for 10,000 prisoners. The clothing came on the train and was issued under the superintendance of two or three U. S. officers.

Major Gee was opposed to recruiting.

Maj. Gee wanted Morfit to get straw for all the prisoners. Morfit said they were not allowed straw by the regulations. Maj. Gee urged him to get it.

The outbreak occurred about 2 o'clock. I went to the cannon at the Northeast angle. It fired once; it fired so high that it would not touch a man standing up in a tent. I heard Maj. Gee give orders to stop firing.

Maj. Gee threatened to report Capt. Goodman to Gen. Bragg.

Maj. Gee was sick at the time of the killing of Lieut. Davis. Capt. Fuqua came back and said an officer was killed who had crossed the line. Maj. Gee said he was very sorry that the officer had been shot. The tree was 6 feet from the fence. The dead line was 10 feet from the fence. It was marked by a plain path.

Before the large mass came, and before Major Gee came, the orders were not to let prisoners come within 10 feet of the fence.

The instruction to the officer of the day was to tell the sentries to halt before shooting. I have heard instructions to let the prisoners go out and gather leaves, when the guard was sufficient.

Major Gee wrote to Gardner that Major Morfit would not obey his orders towards the latter part of the time. He received no reply.

Cross-Examined.—Maj. Gee wrote three letters to Gen. Gardner. He wrote twice and telegraphed twice while they were arriving—another letter perhaps a month afterwards.

Maj. Gee was walking when the sentinel fired after the falling of the chimney. It was not 3 minutes after it fell. The sentinel said, go back! go back! The man who was shot, rubbed his leg. I did not see Mr. Davis at that time. It was after the outbreak. I dont know of any one else being shot that day.

Adj. Stockton, Witness for the prosecution—recalled for the defence.—Witness identified certain official papers offered by the defence in evidence. A large quantity of supplies from the United States were distributed as the officers saw fit.

Maj. Gee wrote to Gen. Gardner three or four letters. (This evidence was corroborative of that given by Judge Baxter and Mr. Best.)

Maj. Gee wrote two or three long letters in which he went into the subject systematically. He told, in a very plain language, that the prisoners were suffering. The only answer, I remember, was the communication (see Mr. Best's testimony) about clothing secured by Maj. Morfit.

The relief given him was sending Gen. Johnson there.

He wrote to Gen. Gardner very urgently that he could not provide for the prisoners.

The answer was: "The orders of the Secretary of War are imperative."

Major Gee told me to go up town and see if I could get a pump made to force the water from the creek; I could not get one. Major Gee sent a young man to Salem, and he stayed seven days, but could not find the pump man. I got another detail for him, but he was unsuccessful.

Major Turner reported it impracticable, but we used these endeavors afterwards.

Maj. Gee, on the piazza, asked Morfit if it would not be possible to get straw for all the tents. Major Morfit said it was against regulations. Major Gee said that did not make any difference—it ought to be got.

Major Morfit told me there were 400 tents.—There were more Sibley than any others. I would say the tents would cover 5,000 or 6,000 men. The largest number of prisoners of war at one time was about 9,000.

Maj. Morfit was not under Gee's command.—He always claimed it from his orders. (Witness made a similar statement to that in Mr. Best's testimony about the wood difficulty.)

There was a general order for officers to communicate with the War Department only through the proper channels.

One hundred and fifty escaped prisoners in all were brought back. He would turn them into the garrison. If they were hungry they would get something to eat.

I only knew two Doctors at the prison with the rank of Major.

Major Gee had not authority to put sick prisoners in the Confederate Hospitals in town.

I think Major Gee could not control Dr. Wilson or Currey. Major Gee told Dr. Wilson to do what he thought best and he would assist him. Major Gee signed all requisitions sent to him by the doctor.

Major Gee's standing order was that the officer of the day was to examine everything taken in; if nothing was wrong, to let it go. I have stood by Major Gee and seen the prisoners pass by with pies in their hands. I have heard him give those orders to the officers of the day.

The prisoners were notified of orders by Mr. Lyerly. He was the general superintendent of the interior of the prison. He was in there nearly all the time. Maj. Gee looked to him for every thing about the internal arrangement. I never heard of a placard for recruiting put up by Maj. Gee. If there were one, it must have been put up by Mr. Lyerly; he was recruiting in there.

Maj. Gee was opposed to recruiting, and countenanced it, only so far as he was compelled by positive orders from the Secretary of War.

(We shall endeavor, in our next, to conclude this day's testimony. The Court has adjourned, as previously stated, until Monday next. But few further witnesses are to be examined.)

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

SECOND DAY.

(AFTERNOON SESSION.)

THURSDAY, May 24.

Convention was called to order by the President.

Prayer by Rev. A. D. Blackwood.

The following gentlemen were appointed a Committee to report on the relation of the colored Baptist organizations to this body, viz: Rev. Dr. Wingate, and Revs. Messrs. Young, James, Purefoy and Wilson.

The Board of Education submitted their Report. This Board has not been able to do any thing since the close of the war, except through private individuals, some of whom had responded liberally. The report was adopted, and its reading was followed by remarks from Revs. Messrs. Young, Brooks, Wingate, Purefoy, Jones and James, and J. H. Foote, Esq., setting forth the necessity of such a noble object.

It is gratifying to state that the interest in Education, so much neglected during the past four years, is greatly on the increase in all portions of the State.

The Committee on filling the vacancies in the Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College nominated J. N. Springs, James Poteat and A. J. Emmerson. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Periodicals reported that the people of the State should have a religious journal, to send forth the word of God, and recommended that a copy of the Biblical Recorder should be sent to every destitute family in the State, and that all pastors should use their influence in its circulation. Interesting remarks were made by Revs. A. D. Cohn, T. B. Kingsbury, Wm. Young, T. E. Skinner and J. J. James. Subject postponed until to-morrow.

After prayer, the Covention adjourned.

[We are unable to give yesterday's proceedings of this body,—they not having been handed in to us for publication.]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Empire Shingle Machine is said to be, truly, a great labor-saving institution, for, with only one horse power, it makes 3,000 elegant shingles per hour.—It makes out of the same amount of timber fully one third more shingles than can be made by any other machine. Here is a fine chance for our enterprising young men to procure a machine that will, if properly worked, enable them to build up a handsome paying business. See advertisement.

R. G. Lewis, Esq., has a duplicate set of Supreme Court Reports for sale.

Harding & Andrews are in receipt of a large and superb lot of clothing suitable to the season.

A young lady in Louisburg wishes a situation as a teacher.

SKILFUL SURGERY.—A painful and delicate Surgical operation was performed in this city, a few days since, by Dr. E. Burke Haywood, assisted by Dr. Wm. Little, upon the leg of Mr. F. M. Keith. The bone had become much diseased, and amputation had to be resorted to, in order to save the limb. The operation was skilfully and successfully accomplished, and the patient is, we are glad to learn, doing very well.

CELEBRATION, CONCERT, &c.—The children and teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday School made a pleasant holyday excursion to Huntsville on yesterday.

There was a brilliant and successful concert of the Methodist Sabbath School at the Deaf & Dumb Institute last evening.

We hope to have an account of both occasions.

THE Hendersonville Pioneer is the title of a new paper that has reached us, published under the Editorial auspicies of the Hon. A. H. Jones. From the nature and tenor of its selections, we infer that it is of the Holden-Brownlow stripe.

PREACHING ON SUNDAY.—The pulpits of the several Churches in this city will be occupied by Ministers, now attending the Baptist State Convention, as follows:

BAPTIST CHURCH:—Rev. W. M. Young, morning; Rev. S. G. Mason, night; Rev. J. A. Stradley, afternoon to colored people.

METHODIST CHURCH:—Rev. A. J. Emerson, morning; Rev. R. R. Savage, night.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH:—Rev. N. W. Wilson, morning; Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, afternoon.

FREEDMAN'S BUREAU.—C. D. Christophers, F. C. Christophers, and J. F. Miller, (whites), and Lewis Gorman, (freedman,) were summoned before the Freedman's Bureau, in this city, on Thursday, to answer a charge of trespass preferred by one Friday Jones, a negro. The parties were simply passing across a field, on their way to a spring, and, when about two-thirds of the way across, this Friday, the owner or renter of the field, ordered them back. They, however, being nearer to the road by the way of the spring, kept on. They disclaimed any intention to do injury and promised not to pass that way again, but Friday was inexorable and would listen to no compromise.

It was proved that the spring had been used by the public for twenty years, and that it had been customary to pass across the field, although no special permission had ever been given.

The case was tried before Lieut. Almy, F. B., and the parties were respectfully fined $1, and Friday, his spleen being gratified, went on his way rejoicing.

We submit that this was a proper case for the civil Courts, and that it was one in which the Bureau had no jurisdiction. Had Friday been a white man, and the action brought before a civil tribunal, no Court, in the face of the evidence and in the absence of the animus to commit a trespass, would have convicted the accused. But a "second Daniel has come to judgment!"

An idiotic child, in Guilford, was found, last Saturday morning, on her father's plantation, partially buried and with her throat cut.—The Coroner was summoned, and after investigation the inquest rendered a verdict that the child came to her death at the hands of one Elias Ledbetter. The murdered child was only twelve years of age, and the accused is but nineteen. He has been arrested and committed to jail.

THE REV. EDWIN GEER, of St. Peter's Church, Washington, N. C., is at present in New York, soliciting contributions to aid in the rebuilding of that edifice, which was burned during the war.

GUILFORD COUNTY.—The Justices for this County have imposed the following taxes for the year: Fifteen cents on each $100 valuation of real estate; one dollar and fifty cents on each poll; and the same proportion, one-and-a-half to one of State tax, on all other subjects listed by the Justices. It was estimated that this assessment would raise between eight and ten thousand dollars for the county—all of which will be required for the support of the poor and other necessary county expenses.

The Wardens of the Poor, already appointed, were directed to take charge of the colored poor, and authorized, at their discretion, to erect suitable buildings, on the poor house land, for keeping that class of paupers.

Rev. C. H. Wiley has been appointed Superintendent of Common Schools for the County.

Dr. D. C. Mebane, a prominent and excellent citizen, died on Wednesday last.

IT is much to be regretted that the unfortunate delay of the arrival of the steamer "Ephesus" should have produced so serious a collapse in public sentiment respecting the enterprise.—We trust, however, the announcement of the cause of her detention will restore the confidence so necessary to the success of the enterprise. While struggling in the storms of April, her steam pipe was bursted, and she was blown to the Azores Islands, and, putting in at St. Michael's, the damage sustained by her machinery was repaired, and she arrived in the port of Boston, last Sunday, (the 20th. inst.)

We sincerely hope that those who have freights will forward them at once to Norfolk, where the steamer will be early next week, and thus secure the establishment of a scheme which must result largely to the benefit of North Carolina and Virginia.

Meeting of the Bar and Citizens of Person—Mr. Badger's Death.

By the politeness of His Honor, Judge Reade, we are enabled to lay the following proceedings before our readers. We preface them with the letter of Judge Reade to Mrs. Badger, which he furnishes by special request:

ROXBORO', May 16th., 1866.

MRS. BADGER:—I have the honor of transmitting the proceedings of a meeting of the members of the legal profession, and a large concourse of citizens, attendant on the Superior Court for Person county, at its recent Spring term, in memory of your late distinguished husband.

We were embarrassed in the meeting, by the poverty of our language, in attempting to express our admiration for the powers and our affection for the virtues of our lamented friend. And I feel the same embarrassment now in attempting to express to you, who have made his home so hospitable, his intercourse with his friends so agreeable, and his life so happy, our appreciation of the gentle manners and amiable disposition which sat by his side.

Be pleased, Mrs. Badger, to accept for yourself and for all his family, assurances of our deep sympathy and sincere affection.

Very respectfully,
E. G. READE.

At a meeting of the members of the legal profession and citizens attendant on the Superior Court for Person County, at its recent Spring term, in memory of the late Hon. George E. Badger, Hon. E. G. Reade was called to the chair, and Col. L. C. Edwards acted as Secretary. The object of the meeting was explained, and on motion of Hon. W. A. Graham, a committee of five, consisting of Hon. Wm. A. Graham, Hon. R. B. Gilliam, Hon. John Kerr, Hon. Thomas Settle and Hon. C. S. Winstead, were appointed by the chair to propose resolutions for the action of the meeting.

The committee reported as follows:

Hon. George E. Badger died of paralysis, at his residence in Raleigh, on the 11th. of May, 1866, in the 72nd. year of his age.

For a half century he was one of the brightest ornaments of the legal profession. His manners were simple and winning; his moral and religious character blameless; his learning accurate and profound; his mind clear and logical; and his powers as an advocate equal to the powers of any man of the age. So that, in all that constitutes the gentleman, the christian, the jurist and the advocate, he has been cherished by us in the past, as his memory should be cherished by us in the future, as a model.

His almost exclusive devotion to his profession, for the earlier and greater part of his life, restricted the fame to which his pre-eminent abilities entitled him, to the limits of North Carolina; but a portion of his life was given to the National councils, and he was esteemed both in the Cabinet and Senate as equal to the wisest statesmen and the ablest debaters. So that, it may with truth be said of the distinguished dead, that he lived a long life in the confidence and admiration of his countrymen, and died with a spotless reputation: Therefore

1. Resolved, That by the death of Hon. Geo. E. Badger, the legal profession has lost one of its brightest ornaments; society one of its most influential and useful members; the State one of its most distinguished citizens, and the people one of their most incorruptible and faithful servants.

2. Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

3. Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his family, and tender to them this token of our sympathy and condolence.

4. Resolved, That the Chairman transmit a copy of the proceedings to Mrs. Badger and to the public press, and that the Hon. Thos. Settle, Solicitor, present the same to the Court here sitting, and request that they be entered on the records.

The report was supported by Gov. Graham and Judge Kerr, in the most appropriate and touching remarks, and was unanimously adopted.

Hon. Thos. Settle, the Solicitor for the District, presented the proceedings to the Court, and his Honor, Judge Gilliam, ordered them to be entered upon the records. Both the Solicitor and his Honor accompanied their action with remarks proper for the occasion, and highly complimentary to the memory of the deceased.

E. G. READE, Chm'n.
L. C. EDWARDS, Sec'y.

GENERAL NEWS.

A letter from Alexander H. Stevens, Esq., dated Crawfordsville, 15th instant, says: "I found all things in Washington, upon the whole, in as good condition, if not better, than I expected. I have not, from the beginning, looked for anything from this Congress. My only hope for the country is in the next fall elections at the North. Should the President's policy be sustained in these, all may yet be well. If not, to me, the prospect of the future for this country, North and South, is gloomy indeed. But from what I saw and heard at Washington, my hopes for a change next fall were greatly stimulated. I am still hopeful in this view, but far from being sanguine. Constitutional liberty will, in my opinion, in a great measure depend upon the result."

It will be well for those who are abusing General Steedman for the character of his report on the Nigger Bureau, to recollect that that officer once commanded a division of negro troops, which he led into action at the battle of Nashville. The General, therefore, is thus connected by old associations with the negroes, and it is absurd to suppose that he would oppose the Bureau, did he not think it detrimental to those who were once under his command.

The correspondent with the investigating commission of Generals Steedman and Fullerton writes from Port Royal, S. C., and Savannah, Ga. A far more favorable condition of affairs is noticeable among the freedmen in Port Royal, Edisto and the Hilton Head islands. Under the administration of General Scoot, the Commissioner for South Carolina, matters are progressing very satisfactorily. The same old story of Northern peculation and malfeasance, however, is told in relating the condition of the Sea Island settlers. In Georgia the report is to the effect that the Freedmen's Bureau is an obstacle in the way of kindly feelings between the whites and blacks.

The following is the definition of the term Fenian authorized by Head Center James Stevens:

Every student of Irish history will recollect that a chieftain existed in Ireland, just anterior to the Christian era, named Fion McCuol. this personage was the commandant of the Fenian Erin, or Irish militia, at a period when Ireland was a nation, and her people protected themselves against the encroachments of all invaders.

As the present organisation is instituted for the same purpose, after the foreign robber shall have been expelled, the name of Fenian was adopted for the branch of the Brotherhood in the United States.

Two boat loads of Fenians landed on Indian Island, Canada, on Monday night and exchanged several shots with the citizens. The British war steamer Niger appeared in sight and they retreated.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his ex traordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the a ccomplished nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of these, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in its fort order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Uterous and ovative diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by I. MAGGIEL, 4 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 56 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the space of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain, her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use the. After all other remedies failed, in January 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time, has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him three Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address,

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is "impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of the into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these diseases.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are universally in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good samples.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases where this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DeROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars (5) per saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.

The respective auxiliary Societies in the State are requested to assemble and appoint delegates, and all regular members of the profession are cordially invited to attend.

Arrangements have been made with the Presidents and Superintendents, which will enable those who may attend to pass on the respective roads at half price.

WM GEO. THOMAS, M. D.,

$25 REWARD.

MY MULE, a large dusky bay horse mule, above the medium size, which was stolen from my premises on the 20th of April inst., although I have arrested the thief, is still out of my possession. I learn that the animal has been sold to or is in the possession of some one near Nashville in Nash County, or may have been sent into Edgecombe or Martin, to evade my search. I warn all persons against trading for said property and would advise any person having the animal in possession to return him to me and claim the above reward, if they would escape the severity of the law.

WARREN, N. C.,
WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.
THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.
His arrangements are of the most complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit
This pleasant and healthful resort.
No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.
The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.
He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.
An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c can be always obtained.
The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.
The Medicinal Properties
Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.
Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.
Persons traveling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.
